

NFL 2006

It has finally happened! The big story of the week is that although it was a default score, somebody got 0 on the week. Young Blood achieved what, I believe, only Crusher has done in the past and picked only 1 correct game. This means that Blondie who failed to submit her picks on time receives ZERO! Since Blondie's achievement is not a real score we will only highlight Young Bloods score and anoint him as the loser of the week.

Enough of the fun stuff. The winner of the week is Captain Fear with 9 correct and a better Monday night score (43) than Mamma Mia (36) who also had 9 correct. Boocom remains in the lead but is now tied with a surging Xena both are only 1 ahead of Mamma Mia who is making up for the first 3 weeks. There has been no change in the last place standings.
